ORDINANCE NO. 211
An Ordinance Repealing Ordinance No. 199 and Amending Ordinance No. 129 of the City of Lodi, by Adding to Said Last-mentioned Ordinance Certain Provisions Relative to Redemption of Real Estate Sold to the City for Delinquent Taxes and Assessments.
The City Council of the City of Lodi does ordain as follows:
Section 1. Ordinance No. 199 of said City of Lodi is hereby repealed.
Section 2. Ordinance No. 129 of said City of Lodi is hereby amended by adding thereto the following:
In all cases where real estate has been sold to the City of Lodi in accordance with the provisions of Ordinance No. 129 for delinquent taxes and/or street improvement assessments and the City has not disposed of the same, the person whose estate has been sold, his heirs, executors, administrators or other successors in interest shall, at any time on or before the 20th day of April, 1936, have the right to redeem such property in the manner provided in Section 3817-53 of the Political Code of this State, and the said section is hereby made part of said Ordinance No. 129 as if set forth in full therein, it being understood that the provisions of said section are to apply to City of Lodi taxes and Assessments that sales to the State are to mean sales to the City that the auction mentioned therein is to mean the City auditor or City Clerk.
It is the intention of the City Council of this City to allow the redemption of such real estate on or before the 20th day of April, 1936, free from the payment of costs and penalties other than the interest in said section 3817-53 provided. No part of this ordinance shall apply to taxes for the fiscal year 1935-1936.
Approved this 15th day of July, 1935.
